Notes for WILLIAM EUGENE SANDERS:

The name Sanders is Anglo Saxon meaning Messenger. Historical records consulted state that the Sanders of Lulling ton, Caldwell, Little, Ireton, Derby, Tenpy and Winchester. Steven Sanders is recorded in the Domesday Book as an English land owner, made in 1085-1086 by order of William the Conqueror from Normandy. Reference: Matthew's American Armory. Other information on the name of Sanders and Saunders from What's In A Name by J. C. Downing says: The name Alexander is from a Greek Word meaning "defending Men". Originally this word appeared as one of the many epithets of the chief Greek Goddesses Era. It later came into common usage and was the name of Alexander the Great, who made it eternally famous. He died in 330 B.C. It was Alexandre in French and in English it was A lysaundre. The Shortened forms were Saunder and Sander in England, in France, it was Sander. In England, there were is the entry of the surname of Henry Sanders, who lived in Worcestershire in 1275. William Saunder appeared in Kent in 1317 and Rachael Saunder lived in Stafford shire in 1330. Other English spelling were Sanders and Sounders. The name was probably more popular in Scotland than in England, but was late in appearance.

John Sanders was a tenant in Tower Morton in 1480. John Centrist was a witness at intermesh in 1546. William Sanders Held land Petfinan in 1557. James Sanders was made a burgess of Aberdeen in 1607 and another James Sanders was declared heir of Alexander Winchester, Burgess of Banff in 1662. Many of the Scottish Sanders and Saunders were members of the Clan Mac Donnel of Glengarry, others were members of the Clan Mac Alister. The meaning of Mac Alister is "son of Alasdair" which was the Gaelic Form of Alexander. Mr. J.C. Downing Says the name Sanders Family were in England and Scotland.
